

After installing the update some of the internal security settings of Windows® Vista™ may conflict with the running and functions of the Designer's Gallery® programs. even after installing the update. These settings may be different among the various Vista versions.

Switching from standard "user" to "administrator"

1. Start up and log in to your computer
2. Open the control panel and click to select User Accounts and Family Safety
3. Click to select User Accounts
4. Click to select Change your account type (keep in mind, if you are logged in as a "user" but have an "administrator" set up on this computer you will be required to enter the administrator password before proceeding)
5. Click continue
6. Click to select Administrator
7. Click Change Account Type
8. Close the control panel

Turning off the User Account Control in a standard user account

1. Open the control panel and click to select User Accounts and Family Safety
2. Click to select User Accounts
3. Click to select Turn User Account Control on or off (keep in mind, if you are logged in as a "user" but have an "administrator" set up on this computer you will be required to enter the administrator password before proceeding)
4. Click to remove the check from Use User Account Control (UAC) to help protect your computer
5. Click ok
6. You will be prompted to restart your computer.

Setting a program to run as "administrator"

1. Right click on the start button at the lower left hand of the task bar
2. Click to select Explore from the pop up menu
3. Double left click on the Program files folder, then Babylock, then the Designer's Gallery program that you want to run as "administrator" (i.e. CustomWorks, QuiltWorks, Designer's Gallery, etc...)
4. Right mouse click on the executable file ( or  gallery 2,000 KB Application) and click to select Run as administrator from the pop up menu.
5. The program will launch